SAGE LEAVES FROM BRENT

Special to The Journal.

Brent, May 27.—Thanks to our ever faithful weather man for a weekly supply of growing showers through this "drouthy season." A steady rain Monday afternoon gave us nearly an inch of precipitation, which almost insures our crops of corn, melons and mid-summer vegetables.

The "tater" rot will soon relieve us of the heavy yield of Irish potatoes.
The best place to hold them is under the houses—where the rats will take toll for infringement on their storage quarters. By all means save a few of the brightest small seed for fall planting.

With sincere regret I have to chronicle the severe illness of the greater "Sage" of Brent. Prof. Allen has been confined to his bed for several days past. He has no appetite, but seems cheerful, and suffers but little.

With all his long years of trials he is not yet tired of Earth—and hopes to be spared to join in the musical overflow when the new railroad touches our heart-strings.

When the professor loses his ability for teaching school and his violin gives out, methinks he will no longer want the services of a doctor, nor care how soon the spirit take on angel wings.

May he recover from this attack, to give us more interesting accounts of former times and noted families.

We are not yet ready to part with Prof. Allen—but the will of the Creator overrules all human desires.

THOS. McMILLAN.

BUBBLE PARTY AND LAWN FETE MONDAY.
The bubble party and lawn fete to be given Monday evening by Mrs. W.
C. Jones and Mrs. J. Storm McGaughey on Mrs. McGaughey's lawn, promises to be a great social event.

Miss Emilia Shulman will conduct the bubble party especially for the children from 5 to 7 o'clock and prizes will be given. Ice cream, cake and fudge tables will be in charge of Misses Louise Quina, Roberta Fisher, Johnnie Skinner, Emily Jones, Ada Hilton-Green, Cora Louise Simpson, Grace Anderson, Susie Scarritt Moreno, and Elizabeth Moreno.

Miss Lizzie McGaughey and Mrs.
W. McK. McMillan will have charge of the fish pond.

Landrums to Have Picnic.

The Landrum baseball team is to enjoy a picnic to-day, and as a consequence will not play any game, as has been the custom each Sunday. The members will meet Tuesday night, however, in the office of Judge Lan-drum, and arrange to challenge any team, the members of which are under 19 years of age.

AN OPPORTUNITY.

The clerks of Pensacola will have an opportunity to enjoy their holiday every Friday afternoon, as Mrs. Allen will run excursions to the Life Saving Station and into the Gulf at 3 and 7 o'clock, on tug Monarch, for the small fare of 35c. Children 20c.

SPECIAL SUMMER COURSE.

Monday, June 5, the first anniversary of the foundation of the Pensacola Business College, there will be added a special department of English Training under Prof. F. H. Ellis and two assistants. Prof. Ellis has had years of experience and is rated one of Florida's best teachers, having held the principalship of the leading high schools of Middle and South Florida.
Special parents will be offered for the term and daughters in school for the summer will do well to arrange with the management at an early date.
Special attention given to backward students. Call at the college or phone 900.

IMPOSSIBLE TO FLOAT ALICIA

SPANISH STEAMSHIP ASHORE BE-LOW MIAMI WILL HAVE TO BE ABANDONED.

Information from the wrecked Spanish steamer Alicia, which went ashore on the Florida keys between Miami and Key West, and on which the tug Three Friends and the wrecking barge Salvor have been working for the past two weeks in an effort to raise and float the ship, is that the idea of floating her is about to be abandoned as impossible, says the Miami Metropolitan.

The tugs are still standing by the wreck, however, and in the event that the wrecking barges decide it cannot be floated, the ship and cargo remaining in her will be sold at underwriters' sale to the highest bidder. There is much valuable material still remaining in the vessel, and she will, no doubt, bring a good price.

Its folly to suffer from that horrible plague of the night, itching piles.
Doan's Ointment cures quickly and permanently. At any drug store, 50c.

MRS. ALLEN'S EXCURSIONS.
Mrs. Allen, beginning next Friday, will run weekly excursions every Friday at 3 and 7 p. m., on tug Monarch, going to Life Saving Station and into the Gulf. Fare 35c, children 20c.
